CITY WELCOMES GREAT NORTHERN ON NEW SERVICE

Official and Unofficial 'Alohas' Extended as Fleet Steamer Reaches Port

MID-WINTER SUMMER
FOR EAGER VISITORS

Many Features Planned for Entertainment of Tourists During Stay Here; Greeting at Hilo Was Hospitable

Honolulu welcomed a new steamer, a new transpacific service and 219 passengers this morning when the crack Hill liner Great Northern moved like the sea-queen one is into berth at Pier 6 at 11:10 o'clock.

It was a welcome not alone by Honolulu folk but by the mid-winter sunshine which makes of Hawaii the Paradise of the Pacific. Early-morning clouds that had wrapped the mountains in heavy fleece and even sprinkled the city were rolled away and dissolved into mist under the winter sun of the sub-tropics, and it was a brilliantly beautiful morning that had "alohe" to the travelers over the new route to the Isles of Peace.

Leaving Hilo at 1:30 this morning, the speed-queen of the Pacific was off port at 10:30, and half an hour later moved into the harbor, with a dictueque and hospitable greeting accompanying her progress. The welcome that awaited the Great Northern at Hilo was repeated and amplified in Honolulu.

Representing the administrative body and various commercial organizations of the city, a joint committee accompanied by the Hawaiian band and six girls from the Kameha-meha girls' school, left from the foot of Port street in the tug Makua as soon as the Great Northern was sighted to meet the vessel outside the harbor. Following are the names of those on the committee:

Representing the city, Mayor John C. Lane.

Promotion Committee, Ed. Towse, Geo. A. Angus and Arthur F. Wall.
Chamber of Commerce, Raymond C. Brown and Gerrit S. Wilder.
Commercial Club, J. M. Young and Charles R. Frasier.

Ad Club, J. M. Riggs and J. F. Child.
Only a short stop was made by the big liner, just long enough for the committee to climb aboard, and she then came on into the harbor. The six Hawaiian girls who have the honor of taking leis out to the visitors are Misses Katie Gregory, Rachel Puaa, Abbey Allen, Emmeline Kalina, Edith Oana and Emily Keapo.

Delight shone from the faces of every passenger on the Great Northern as the tug came alongside, the band playing "Aloha Oe," and the reception committee climbed up the gangplank All Decked With Leis.

As soon as the girls set foot on deck they at once began distributing leis to passengers, officers and the ship's white-uniformed crew, until everyone on board was wearing the distinctive Hawaiian tokens of greeting.

"It's worth coming 2000 miles to get the greeting we have received here," said Mrs. Florence H. Kendall of New York.

Mayor Lane, in behalf of the city of Honolulu, made the opening speech of welcome. He pointed out the various places of interest as the big liner proceeded up the channel.

"We are proud that we are living under the Stars and Stripes," he said, and a ringing cheer went up at his words. "On your right you see Diamond Head, on the left Pearl City, where the United States is spending millions of dollars to make this port the Gibraltar of the Pacific.

"These millions of dollars are being well spent, and I live in the hope that more will be expended, as the life of these islands depends on adequate protection against invasion.

Offers Key to City.

"I hope you will be one in sounding the keynote of protection and seeing that Congress heeds to the wants of this territory. Again I extend to you the key to our city."

A. P. Taylor, director of the Promotion Committee, as passenger on the ship, then introduced L. N. Brunswig personal representative of President Robert N. Bulla of the Los Angeles chamber, whose greeting to Honolulu is printed in another column.

"Your greetings are most heartily appreciated," said Mr. Brunswig. "We accept the keys to your city and will see that they are properly used."

At the conclusion of the speechmaking Mayor Lane held an informal reception and shook hands with the passengers. The band went back to Pier 6, and when the steamer docked was playing "On the Beach at Waikiki" and other music of a distinctively Honolulu character. The pier was crowded with Honoluluans, and the Ad Club

FOR WIELDING KNIFE

Charged with assault with a knife, Ah Sing, for 28 years a resident of Honolulu and for ten years known all over town as a peddler of ice cream, was committed to the grand jury today by Judge Monsarrat.

C. K. Wong, employed by Hop Sing Kee in a restaurant on Aala lane, near King street, testified in court that Sing came into his place, ran all the cooks out and stuck one man in the arm with a knife. During the fracas, he said, Sing was burned by a ladle of hot soup, which one of the waiters dashed in his face.

Sing denied the whole story. He said he was beaten by a soldier, treated by Dr. Ayer, and on his way home was arrested for assault.

TONIGHT'S PROGRAM.
7:30 p. m.—Service in Central Union church. Address by Evangelist Brown on subject "The Old Hitting Post." Special music, with C. P. Curry, soloist, leading.

TOMORROW'S PROGRAM.
10:00 a. m.—Practical talk to Christian people by Evangelist Brown in Central Union church.
No special subject has been announced.

7:30 p. m.—Service in Central
Union church. Address by Evangelist Brown on subject "King David's Rathens." Special music by augmented choir.

A service exclusively for the women of Honolulu and for girls more than 12 years old will be one of Sunday's features of the Brown-Curry evangelistic campaign which has taken Honolulu by storm. The service will be held in Central Union church at 2:45 o'clock in the afternoon, at which time Evangelist John E. Brown will speak on the subject "The Devil's Decoys."

All women of Honolulu are cordially invited to attend the service. It will not be the last of its kind, as the evangelist is planning another to be held near the close of the campaign.
There will be a special musical program led by C. P. Curry, the soloist.

Evangelist Brown today asked the Star-Bulletin to extend a special invitation to the women generally of Honolulu to attend the service. "Assure them," he said, "that while my message will be for women only, and girls under 12 will be excluded, the message as a whole will be on the highest

INVADERS' ROUTE NOT KNOWN; U. S. MAY DECIDE ATTACHE OF GERMANY PERSONA NON GRATA

Result of Conspiracy Case Said to be Lansing's Reason

CAPT. BOY-ED, NAVAL ATTACHE OF GERMAN LEGATION, REPORTED TO BE CONNECTED WITH WAR PLOTS OF WHICH HAMBURG-AMERICAN OFFICIALS WERE FOUND GUILTY—PARIS HEARS RUMORS GREECE IS SWINGING OVER TO TEUTONS

(Associated Press by Commercial Pacific Cable.)

LONDON, Eng., Dec. 3.—Striking quickly from their mobilization camps in and around Odessa, the Russian commanders of the forces just outside the Balkan war arena have launched at Bulgaria a blow in retaliation for the Bulgarian campaign against Serbia.

News reached here today that the Russians have entered Bulgaria, but the route of their invasion is unknown. Nor is there any definite statement as to the number of men in the invading army.
An earlier report asserted that a Russian expedition of 400,000 men had started across Rumania to reach the war front.

Rumor U. S. Finds German Naval Attache Persona Non Grata Now

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 3.—It is understood in official circles here that one of the immediate results of the conviction of Hamburg-American Steamship Company officials of conspiracy to deceive and defraud the United States falls upon Capt. Boy-Ed, the naval attache of the German embassy. A report says that Secretary of State Lansing has informed Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, that Capt. Boy-Ed is persona non grata to the United States government, as a result of the connection shown between his activities and those of Dr. Karl Buezn, resident director of the German steamship line, and Buezn's three subordinates.

Dr. Buezn and his subordinates last night were declared guilty by the jury which has heard the evidence of their complicity in the plots to send supplies from American ports to German warships. The naval attache's connection with the conspirators is said to be established.

Allies Firmly Set On More War

LONDON, Eng., Dec. 3.—The speculation as to whether or not a peace movement can be launched now finds the members of the Allied nations unresponsive and the British people firmly bent on waging war until the enemy is beaten.

Despite their reverses in the land campaigns, the Allies are not wavering, declared Bonar Law, secretary for the colonies, in a speech in the House of Commons today which answered recent rumors of peace prospects.

"It is useless to believe that Germany will relinquish Belgium, Serbia, Poland and Alsace until the Teutons are beaten," declared the minister.

It is the feeling here that men and munitions will finally win for the Allies and the advocates of peace are dwindling.

Fear Greece Will Join Teutons Soon

PARIS, France, Dec. 3.—Newspaper comment here voices the fear that the diplomatic efforts of the Allies with Greece have failed and that the Teuton complexion of the Greek court is aiding to swing the country over to the side of the Central Empires. A rumor has it that Greece has been offered Monastir, the southern Serbia town on the verge of capture, and the rich Vardar valley from near Strumitza deep into Serbia, in exchange for Greek cooperation against the Allies.

Ford Delegation To Number 125

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 3.—One hundred and twenty-five delegates on Henry Ford's "peace ship" will sail on Saturday for Europe, arriving at Christiania, Norway, their first stop, on December 15.

Georges Carpentier Wins Glory

PARIS, France, Dec. 3.—Sergeant Georges Carpentier, European heavyweight champion, and a member of the French aviation corps has been decorated with the military cross for daring in aviation work, having accomplished some courageous flights.

Portugal "Sympathetically" Neutral

PARIS, France, Dec. 3.—The Portuguese cabinet has expressed its sympathy with the Allies and their cause but will adhere to a policy of neutrality.

PERSIA MARU SAILS FOR HONOLULU SOON

(Special Cable to Hawaii Shiping) TOKIO, Japan, Dec. 3.—The liner Persia Maru, which recently struck a rock in Yokohama bay, has completed all necessary repairs and will leave Yokohama December 7 for San Francisco via Honolulu.

While his accuser and constable waited for him to change his clothes that they might arrest him on a charge of forgery, Monroe Boyce, a farmer living near Mawana, N. J., shot and killed himself.

YOSHIMITO TO REVIEW BIG FLEET TOMORROW

(Special to Hawaii Shiping) TOKIO, Dec. 3.—The grand naval review which will be held tomorrow on Tokio bay will include participation of 125 warships and nine aeroplanes. Emperor Yoshihito and three of his sons will attend the review.

A lion that escaped from his cage at Hempstead, L. I., as he was about to be sold at auction, caused a panic among the spectators. It was caught by the owner of the kennels where the lion was kept.
